

Southold Yacht Club Code of Conduct

This form must be signed by each student and a parent, and returned along with your Sailing School Registration. No child will be able to participate in classes until signed.

Students are required to follow the Southold Yacht Club Code of Conduct. Respect for instructors, fellow students, adults helping to run the program and safety are paramount. If a behavior problem is repeated or serious, suspension or expulsion may be necessary. There will be no refunds for suspension or expulsion from the Southold Yacht Club for behavioral problems.

Inappropriate behavior includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Verbal abuse of anyone for any reason, including use of foul language
- Threatening, physical abuse and/or fighting, under any circumstances
- Stealing or borrowing without permission
- Damaging property
- Breaking laws related to alcohol, tobacco or illegal drugs
- Noncompliance with the directions of any instructor, Director, or supervising parent

I have read and agree to comply with these rules.

_____ (student)

_____ (student)

_____ (student)

_____ (student)

I have read and discussed these rules with my child(ren.)

_____ (parent) _____ (date)